WELCOME

I am delighted to invite you to attend the 28th annual ANZSLA conference on the Gold Coast.

The Gold Coast is blessed with beautiful beaches, stunning hinterland and fantastic weather – the perfect complement for the world-class program we have lined up for you.

It's a very exciting time to be a sports lawyer and in addition to crowd favourites like Hayden Opie's case law update, our 2018 program will explore topical issues such as transgender and intersex issues in the sporting arena, pay equality issues impacting on the rise of women in sport and where things are headed for sports integrity post the James Wood review.

We'll hear from the likes of Simon Gardiner from Leeds Beckett University, Zali Steggall, lawyer and Olympic bronze medallist, Annabelle Williams, Legal Counsel for the Australian Olympic Committee and Paralympian and Sarah Kelly from the University of Queensland and Brisbane Lions Board.

Whilst our program will keep you informed, our social events will keep you connected. There will be plenty of opportunity for networking at the President's Welcome Reception at the QT Hotel and the official conference dinner at the Skypoint Observation Deck – not to mention the networking you could do during a morning beach walk!

Our 2018 conference is shaping up as a not to be missed event, so register early and secure your place. We can't wait to welcome you!

Paula Robinson

Chair, Gold Coast ANZSLA Conference Organising Committee

Paul Trisley Award

Paul Trisley was a highly regarded sports lawyer and one of ANZSLA's most dedicated members for many years. Paul died in 2001 and this award acknowledges his tremendous contribution to ANZSLA and the area of sports law generally.

At its annual conference each year, ANZSLA presents this award to a person who has never presented at an ANZSLA event or been previously published in the ANZSLA Journal, and who, in the judges' opinion, submits the best paper in accordance with the award guidelines. The judging takes into account the paper's accuracy, originality, practical value to sports administrators and lawyers, and its academic quality.

The winner will receive from ANZSLA:

- The Paul Trisley Award presented at the 2018 ANZSLA Conference dinner in the Gold Coast on Thursday 18 October
- Full registration at the 2018 ANZSLA Conference in Gold Coast, Australia
- Return air travel to and from the 2018 ANZSLA Conference (Australasian only)
- Two nights' accommodation during the 2018 ANZSLA Conference
- One year's ANZSLA membership

The winning paper may be published in the peer reviewed Australian and New Zealand Sports Law Journal.

Entrants must email their paper in MS Word format to ANZSLA's Executive Manager (anzsla@anzsla.com) by Sunday, 2 September 2018.

Full terms and eligibility conditions for entry can be found at www.anzsla.com

Denis Callinan Award

This award is in memory of Denis Callinan who was a well respected lawyer and ANZSLA member. The award is kindly sponsored by the Gold Coast Traffic Offenders Program, of which Denis was a founder.

The Denis Callinan Award recognizes members who render commendable community service in the field of sports law. Members are encouraged to nominate themselves or fellow members. The recipient of the Award will be presented with a trophy in recognition of their outstanding community service, and the right to nominate an appropriate recipient of a grant of AUS$2,000 or NZ$2,000 (dependent on the country of the recipient and subject to the approval of the ANZSLA Board).

Further information about the award can be found at www.anzsla.com. All nominations are to be submitted by email to ANZSLA's executive manager (anzsla@anzsla.com) by Friday 7 September 2018

Gold Coast

A diverse city by the sea, Australia's Gold Coast is as much a place to bring work as it is to come and experience the unmistakable energy and enviable lifestyle.

With 57 kilometres of sand and surf, 100,000 hectares of World Heritage listed rainforests, award winning dining, active pursuits and an ever evolving calendar, along with more than 300 days of sunshine, the Gold Coast is the perfect destination to add a few extra days pre or post conference.

To plan your Gold Coast experience, visit DestinationGoldCoast.com

Arrival

The Gold Coast is serviced by two major airports. Gold Coast Airport is conveniently located 30 minutes from the city centre and offers extensive domestic and international services. Direct flights to and from all Australian capital cities and regional areas, plus the majority of metropolitan centres across the globe are readily available.

Brisbane Domestic and International Airport is less than one hour's drive north from the city centre via the M1. The Airtrain from Brisbane Airport will take you to Nerang Station in just over an hour. It is then a 25 minute drive to the QT hotel.
